American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine

Advancing the Science of Comfort ~ Affirming the Art of Caring

For Immediate Release

Contact: Mary Louise Carr
847/375-3688

American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine Introduces Patient Education Information on its Web site

Glenview, IL – The American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine (AAHPM) features new patient education materials on hospice and palliative care on its Web site at www.aahpm.org.

These articles were written by physicians, nurses, pharmacists and other healthcare providers and provide valuable information for patients facing serious or life-threatening conditions.

This new Web page also features a directory of physicians certified in palliative care by the American Board of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, as well as other Web sites providing helpful information for patients facing serious or life-threatening conditions.

For more information about patient education information on hospice and palliative care, or membership in the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, contact AAHPM Member Services at 847/375-4712, or visit the AAHPM Web site at www.aahpm.org.

# # # #

AAHPM's membership includes over 3,300 physicians and other medical professionals dedicated to excellence in palliative medicine and the prevention and relief of patient and family suffering. Since 1988, AAHPM has supported hospice and palliative medicine through advancement of clinical practice standards, fostering research, providing education, and through public policy advocacy. For more information, contact AAHPM at 847/375-4712 or visit www.aahpm.org.